The Introduction Package

We set out to create a comprehensive package to introduce newcomers to the Human Design System, describe how to get started and how to go on. It is now finally ready and contains general information about the Human Design System, Ra Uru Hu, New Sun Services America, the licensed Human Design analysts in North America, the Human Design School courses, the products and services. It has the same format as the newsletter: loose, hole-punched sheets ready for a binder. Like this, it is easy to update any section of it.

This package will be sent to every newly registered person, along with the most recent newsletter. If you would like to receive a copy, give a call or drop a note.

May 15 Premiere: New Primer with Ra Uru Hu

Ra is returning to Taos this May to train new teachers for North America. While here, he's giving a new class, the Primer, aimed to start your studies of Human Design with an excellent foundation for using and understanding a Human Design System Rave chart. In three hours, Ra takes you on a journey into a totally new way of seeing yourself and your life, what it means to be yourself and to love yourself.

The Primer can be taken alone for just $50. It can also be packaged with a special one-day Basic training for students who want to qualify for other classes. Make it worthwhile and come to Taos for an extended weekend. You can package the Primer with the Basic, and then stay over for the Reading Charts class with Ra. By taking both classes, you qualify for the discount. Save even more with the early payment discount.

Also happening this May is the Advanced training for students who have already completed the Basic training. If you want to attend this class in May, and still need to complete a Basic training, sign up now for the Correspondence Basic training and be ready to attend the analyst training program in May. All students attending the May Advanced training are invited to attend Ra's Primer evening included in their training fee. New analysts just completing the Advanced training can combine the weekend Reading Charts class with Ra. Early payment for two classes saves you 10%! (see page 4 for more details).

Of course, Ra being in town is also a great opportunity for getting an individual reading with him.

The training schedule on page 4 shows dates and locations for Primer evenings and free lectures with Ra. It also has the fall tour and training schedule. Call to register for classes or individual readings with Ra.

HEALTH and Human Design

14. Limitation

As I often mention, Limitation is synonymous with being healthy on an individual level. The term health suggests the possibility of a steady state that can be generalized to the collective. Being healthy, however, I can only be as an individual, in the here and now, which implies knowledge of my limitations each moment. Hexagram 60 is about the individual moderation* in the moment.

Many people don't want to accept the fact of limitations: When there's a stagnant economy, we talk about zero-growth, when it's receding, it's minus-growth. There's no room for limitation. Everything is growth, and at the same time, advertising suggests what to have and use in addition. Everything is continuously improved and more sophisticated. Limitlessness is far more attractive and tempting than limitation. The aim is growth, expansion, better, farther, faster, more money, more profit, more health.

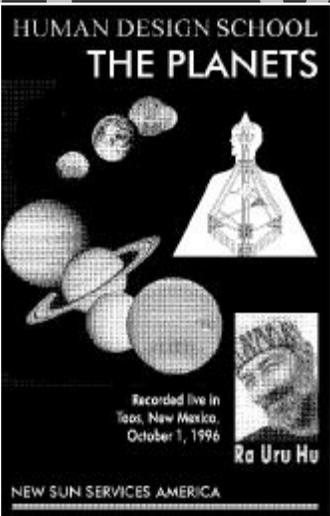

The acceptance of limitation is the first step in transcendence is the key-phrase of hexagram 60 in the Rave l'Ching. Only through this acceptance, healthy growth receives its base. Hexagram 60 is a purely physical, individual, impulsive energy and is beyond our capacity to immediately perceive no choice.

An example: Hexagram 55 is connected with the energy format 60 3. Spiritual growth therefore happens only on the basis of acceptance of individual limitation. A lot of esoteric illusions of grandeur originate here and the crashed Icarus then ends up in our therapeutic practice with spiritual bruises. I then often describe hexagram 60 with the image of a river: of course, the banks narrow and limit the river, but they give it direction and power. It is good for the river to have limitation, in fact, limitation defines it. The same is true for the river of life. It is hard for people to accept that growth needs limitations. The Human Design System can help to see and love the unique beauty emerging from limitation.

If I as an individual want to move from an old order (60) to a new order (3), the intermediate step is dis-order. The same is true for becoming healthy after being ill. More about creative chaos next time: for now, let's keep it in limits...

* P.S. by the translator: das individuelle gesunde Mass is a term Martin uses often to describe the pre-requisite for being healthy. Growing up with the German language and mindset, I am familiar with term and concept since childhood, but have been insecure about how to translate it to English. I couldn't find terms quite equivalent and Zeno, who edits my translations, wasn't a great help, either. So far, I've used a literal translation: the individual healthy measure. Today I find that moderation describes the term quite accurately, far better and more elegantly. So that's what I'll use from now on. Chaitanyo

Mercury is the planet closest to the Sun. By tradition, Mercury is a communicator, that is, the communicator for the Sun. Mercury in the tradition of Mercury and Prometheus and Loki and all of these characters who brought the knowledge of the gods to humanity. Mercury is a communicator and wherever you see Mercury in a chart, what you are seeing is what must be communicated as a theme in the life. And you have a conscious communication and an unconscious communication.

If you look at Monica,* what she needs to communicate unconsciously is her Mercury in the 46. She needs to communicate that she is in the right place at the right time. She needs to communicate her determination to work with her body, because this is a gate of the body, and she needs to communicate the power of the body: she's a professional athlete.

On the other side, you have Mercury in the 34: this is the Power of the Great. She needs to communicate her power: eh! each time she hits the ball. Communicating her power, letting her power come out in the same way that she hits the ball communicating her power. That's the Mercurial field.

* Monica Seles, tennis player. Her chart is included in the tape jacket.

This new column came out of questions posed to me that I forwarded to Ra for an answer. When you want to submit a short question, please write, fax or e-mail us, and we will present it to Ra. Those questions that get answered will be published in the next newsletter, depending on space.

Q Is it Neptune in gate 60 that is so heavy?

A Neptune veils. What is hidden we seek, sometimes to the point of obsession or addiction. When limitations (60) are obscured, frustration is ensured. Advice: If you don't look Medusa in the eye, there is nothing to fear.

Q What advice do you have for a parent when their child brings the 18?

A Parents with children with the 18 cannot afford to be trapped in dissatisfaction competition with their children. With a collective child designed to challenge any authority, the parents are conditioned and take the challenge personally. Advice: Don't identify with your children's complaints.

Q I'm sure many people ask you, but here goes: How does the Hale-Bopp comet affect the Human Design Rave chart?

A I have been bopped by everyone, What's happening, Ra? There are untold numbers of objects within the ring of our solar system. The Voice was explicit in stating that only the planets, the Moon, its Nodes and the Sun can activate gates. So to answer your question, Hale-Bopp has no effect whatsoever on the Rave chart. Comets historically have been projected upon, most significantly Halley. It is clear from scientific evidence that extensive material from comets reaches the Earth during such a by-pass. Some very sophisticated molecules are involved which are mostly carbon-based. And humans are carbon-based life-forms. The most likely impact is on those being born at this time. It is possible that long-term processes which are part of our evolutionary development could be affected. My suggestion is that if you've lost your job, your lover, or your peace of mind, don't blame Bopp.

from The Book of Letters second hand!

If you're a starving student or just on a limited budget, here's your chance to get this invaluable resource, from The Book of Letters, second hand.

When this book was first made available in the United States, the copy quality was dismal, but What To Do? The information was what people paid for, as well as supporting the production for the eventuality of an improved version, now ready and available for $95 plus shipping.

Ra's original manuscript has been slightly edited, is easier to read with the improved print quality, and graphics are now quite sharp. The folks who bought the very first version can exchange their old, well-preserved copy for a new copy.* Those recycled first editions are now available for the used price of $50. And best of all, you can upgrade it for just $45.

* If you have one of the first copies, it is recognizable by the plastic rib binding (not a coil). When you want to exchange your old copy for a new one, please call Zeno, 505 758-2909

Correspondence BASIC TRAINING

Start anytime take as long as you want 10 lessons $320

The correspondence Basic training has allowed my learning to follow its own pace. Some lessons I moved through quickly, eager for the next step. Other lessons I have taken more slowly, savoring the information and applying it to the charts of people in my life. The more I learn about the Human Design System, the more it reveals its elegant complexity.
